

The Ultimate Fundraising Activity.

WHAT ELSE SHOULD I KNOW?

-All demonstrations are conducted under the Operational Regulations of the Australian Parachute Federation.

-All Skydivers have qualifications issued by the Australian Parachute Federation and are experts in their field.

-All demonstration Skydives are covered by Public Liability Insurance.

JANINE HAYES

Janine Hayes the Chief Instructor of Aerial Skydives has represented Australia both nationally and internationally in her specific discipline of Accuracy jumping.

This is similar to an aerial form of darts.

Janine is currently the Australian Women's Accuracy Champion and has held positions on the Australian Parachute Federation Board for over 18 years.

Janine is an animated speaker who is happy to speak with children and adults of all ages on her love of Sport Parachuting and the thrill of flying with the birds.

DROP FOR DOLLARS
SKYDIVE
DEMONSTRATIONS
A NEW CONCEPT IN FUNDRAISING

Aerial skydives is offering a novel way to fundraise and provide entertainment at your valued event.

THE CONCEPT. Paper squares are sold to individuals at a $ price usually up to $5 in value. Contact numbers are written on the squares.

On the day of your valued event the Skydivers exit the aircraft above 3000' then fly and land on the plates that have been placed on the landing area thereby choosing the prize winners. Prizes correspond to the number of Skydivers who land. This can range from one to three Skydivers. Prizes are the responsibility of the organisation. These may be donated by local business or a cash prize give from the money raised. ($200 maximum amount per prize.)

Alternately a Tandem Display can be conducted with an important member of the organisation Skydiving into the area.* Conditions apply.

In the event of inclement weather squares can be placed in garbage bag and prizes awarded according to those drawn out.

Australian champions are available as guest speakers to speak about aviation in line with curriculum studies or for general interest to your school, organisation or sporting club.
